NUMB. 2375

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1. 1743.

To the AUTHOR of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

AS I have formerly seen ſome curious Pieces of Antiquity ſecured from Oblivion in your Paper, I take the Liberty of ſending you the incloſed, to be diſpoſed of as you think proper. I know there are many People who think Collections of this Sort of very little Value, and therefore deem Time not ſpent but thrown away in collecting them; yet the ingenious Dr. Plott, to whom we owe the Natural Hiſtories of Oxfordſhire and Staffordſhire, was of a different Opinion; and I have ſeen ſeveral Folio Manuſcripts of his Writing, that were full of Particulars of this Nature.

I will not take upon me to ſay how far the Magiſtrates of Leiceſter were juſtifiable in making ſuch a Search as this, which might ſeem to threaten the Parish where it was conſummated with ſome Inconveniences; but if the Civil Law Maxim, That Conſent makes a Marriage, be right, then, to be ſure, they did well to ſupply the neceſſary Forms, where the Eſſence of the Contract had already taken Place. I do not know whether I ought to obſerve to you, that they ſeem to have taken more than ordinary Pains to make the Man ſignify his Intentions by ſuch Geſtures as could not poſſibly be miſtaken, and which nothing could have ſuggeſted to him, or, at leaſt, cou'd have induced him to have expreſſed with ſuch Vehemency, but the Warmth of the Paſſion with which he was then affected.

The Publication of this may induce me to ſend you ſome other Things, which, perhaps, may be more agreable to the Nature of your Paper. All Readers, however, in my Opinion, have a Right to ſome Indulgence when they turn Correſpondents. What hits one Man's Taſte, may diſpleaſe another, and that too, with as much or as little Reaſon; for, with Submiſſion to wiſer Heads, moſt of our Enquiries ariſe rather from a Deſire of gratifying our Curioſity than informing our Judgments; ſo that to ſome, the dumb Man of Leiceſter may be as agreeable an Amuſement, as to others a Story about Kouli Kan. I am,

Your's, &c.

CHARLES CROTCHET.

"In the Regiſter of St. Martin's Pariſh, Leiceſter, Feb. 5. 1618 Eliz.

"Tho. Tilſley and Urſula Ruſſet were married; and becauſe the ſayd Thomas was and is naturally deaf and dumb, could not for his Part obſerve the Order of the Form of Marriage, after the Approbation had from Thomas the Biſhop of Linc. John Chippendale, LL.D. and Commiſſary, and Mr. Richard Davys Mayor of Leiceſter, and others of his Brethren, with the reſt of the Pariſh; the ſayd Thomas for expreſſing of his Mind, inſtead of Words of his own Accord uſed theſe Signs; firſt he embraced her with his Arms, took her by the Hand, and put a Ring on her Finger, and laid his Hand upon his Heart, and to ſhew his Continuance to dwell with her to his Live's End, he did it by caſting his Eyes with his Hands, digging the Earth with his Feet, and pulling as tho' he would ring a Bell, with other Signs approved."

Concordat cum Originali.

Peterſbourg, Jan. 5.

A Reſolution has been taken by her Imperial Majeſty, to continue the Forces in Finland in their preſent Quarters till the Peace with Sweden ſhall be concluded. It has been alſo reſolv'd to reduce, as far as the Dignity of the Court will permit, the Expences of her Majeſty's Houſhold, in order to raiſe a Fund for ſupporting an Augmentation of the Troops in the Kingdom of Aſtracan, and the adjacent Provinces. It is apprehended here, that Thamas Kouli Kan has been inclined to violate the Peace with this Empire by ſome of the European Counſellors, who perhaps are in the Intereſt of our Enemies, and therefore Inſtructions will be given to a Miniſter who is ſhortly to be ſent to that Court, to explain the Inconveniencies that muſt reſult to the Perſians upon their living upon ill Terms with us, in the ſtrongeſt Light, and, at the ſame time, to offer ſuch Terms as may entirely take away the Pretences on which he founds his Diſcontent. If theſe Conceſſions have not the deſired Effect, Meaſures will be immediately concerted for carrying the War into his Dominions; and there is ſome Talk of our negotiating a new Alliance, offenſive and defenſive, with the Port.

Franckfort, Jan. 27. According to the Repreſentations made by Marſhal Seckendorff, the Scheme of increaſing the Imperial Troops to 40,000 Men, will meet with very great Difficulties, the Electorate of Bavaria being ruined to ſuch a Degree, that it ſeems equally hard to find Recruits, or to find any Funds requiſite for maintaining ſo great an Army. It is ſaid, that as ſoon as the Emperor returns to Munich, he will call together the States, and lay before them the Aſſurances he has received from France, and the Offers made him by other Potentates, in order to have their Advice, which he ought to accept, for the preſerving his Hereditary Dominions, and the Support of his Imperial Dignity.

Manheim, Jan. 25. The Prince of Deux Pont paſs'd thro' this City on the 21ſt, in his Way to Franckfort. The Peaſants of ſeveral Villages have had Orders to bring in a great Quantity of Oats, Hay and Straw, for the Uſe of the French Troops, which are on their March thro' Franconia into Alſace, and who are expected in a few Days to paſs the Rhine at Neckerau. Abundance of Officers have already paſs'd through this place for Landau, in order to wait there the Arrival of the reſpective Corps, and to march with them from thence to the Winter Quarters that ſhall be aſſign'd them. All our Advices from Bavaria agree, that the French Generals are forced to be extremely vigilant, in order to ſecure their Quarters from being beaten up by the Auſtrians; and that M. Broglio had expreſſly written to his Court, that he could not be anſwerable for the Security of the Forces under his Command, unleſs 20,000 Recruits join'd the Army before the 1ſt of March next.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar of the 29*th of* December, 1742.

'The 27th, in the Morning, as the Poultney Privateer, commanded by the brave Capt. Purcell, was 'cruizing off Europa Point, he was attacked by two 'large Xabeques, of 120 Men each, and ſome Guns, carrying nine Pounds Shot; it was ſtark Calm, and continued ſo all the time that the Engagement laſted. Several times they attempted to board him, and called 'out to him (by Name) to ſtrike, promiſing him good 'Quarter; but he, with his ſmall Crew of 38 Men 'only, ſo bravely defended himſelf, and ſo roughly 'treated them, that they were glad to ſheer off, after two Hours ſmart Engagement; had he had Wind 'enough to have worked the Brigantine, he would certainly have ſunk, or taken them both. Their Veſſels 'are ſo miſerably ſhatter'd, that they have been obliged 'to haul them aſhore in the Bay, not being in a Condition to ſwim; and it is believed, that near 150 of their 'Crews are either killed, or wounded, and this, with 'the ſmall Loſs of his Side, of only one Man kill'd, and 'four or five wounded.'

Yeſterday the Right Rev. Dr. Willes, Lord Biſhop of St. David's, preach'd before the Houſe of Peers at St. Peter's, Weſtminſter. His Lordſhip's Text was in the 3d Chapter of Micah, the 10th, 11th, and 12th Verſes.

The ſame Day the Rev. Dr. John Chapman preach'd before the Houſe of Commons at St. Margaret's, Weſtminſter, from the 2d Chap. of the 1ſt Epiſt. of St. Peter, and the 16th Verſe.

We hear the Lord Chief Juſtice Lee, and Mr. Baron Carter, will not go their reſpective Circuits, but attend the Houſe of Peers.——Mr. Juſtice Forteſcue Aland does not go the Circuit on Account of his ill State of Health.

On Sunday laſt died at Hampſtead, Mrs. Dutton, Wife of Mr. Dutton, an eminent Baker and Cornchandler.

Laſt Saturday Night a Lieutenant of a Man of War coming from the May-Pole to Tower-Hill, was knock'd down, and robb'd of his Watch, and ſix Guineas, by a ſingle Footpad.

Yeſterday in the Afternoon an Expreſs arrived at the Admiralty, with an Account of the ſafe Arrival of his Majeſty's Ships the Lightning Bomb, and the Defiance Man of War, at Portſmouth, from Jamaica.

The Deptford Man of War is arrived at Portſmouth, from Lisborn.

The Pretty Betſey, Reynolds, from London bound to Jamaica, is the other Veſſel carried into Cherburg by the Spaniards.

Such Quantities of Rum are lately arrived from Jamaica, that the beſt full Proof is ſold at the Punch Houſe behind the Royal Exchange for 7 s. 6 d. per Gallon.

It's very remarkable, that this was the firſt, and now is the only Houſe, authorized to retail Punch and Spirituous Liquors (under the preſent Act of Parliament) in Great Britain.

It is alſo farther remarkable, that the above Paragraph has occaſioned Non ſibi, ſed PATRIÆ, to fall the Price of Rum from 8 s. to 7 s. 4 d. but we hope the Goodneſs of our Goods will make Amends for that Two-pence per Gallon.

An Infallible REMEDY

For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,

WHich has been published and sold many Years before any Counterfeits in other Forms appeared; and highly commended from one Friend to another. The vast Quantities that have been sold also verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it most perfectly cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed by Humours dripping thereon, occasion'd by hard Riding, Colds, &c. causes presently a free Perspiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures those Horses only a little touch'd in their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezings, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Distempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horses have been made so perfectly sound, that they have been sold and valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by being Broken-winded, could not before be sold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is sold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. the Quart Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where else in England.
